

Amplitude Surgical successfully carries out a 65 million euro bond financing placement

Valence, December 1st, 2016 – Amplitude Surgical (ISIN: FR0012789667, Ticker: AMPLI, PEA-PME eligible), a leading player on the global surgical technology market for lower-limb orthopedics, today announces the completion of a new 65 million euro bond issue. This new bond debt has enabled the Group to carry out the early repayment of 35 million euros of its previous debt while providing it with an additional 30 million euros, which will give the Group the necessary financial resources to pursue its international development.

Philippe Garcia, CFO of Amplitude Surgical, says: “This bond issuance represents a key milestone to strengthen our financial structure. With a more favorable interest rate and greater financial flexibility, this additional 30 million euros of funding will enable us to finance our expansion, notably in the United States, and to move into new territories.”

This new bond debt carries a 5% annual coupon and has a maturity of six years. The terms of the existing residual debt have been significantly improved, with a 100-bp reduction in the margin and a 2-year extension of the maturity date to September 2023.
